

RISHABH KANWAR

Designer(I am getting there)

PERSONAL PROFILE

I am an Analyst at Deloitte Consulting. My primary work is not design related. I have never taken a design course in my life. I am part of initiatives at the firm though that are people centric and that's where I got into designing and building decks. I apply at your firm to learn from you.

DISTINCTIONS

Company Magazine/Tabloid

Deloitte Consulting

2021

- Content Creator for a Connected Planning platform called "Anaplan"
- Revamped the complete tabloid with a fresh & professional look. The tabloid received positive feedback from multiple employees in the practice.
- Interviewed teams who are doing amazing on projects to feature them in the magazine.
- Reached out to Industry Experts quoting them in the magazine to educate employees on Best Practices.

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

Manipal Institute of Technology

Computers and Communication Engineering

- I did my Bachelor of Technology in Computer and Communication Engineering that gave me expertise in Computer Science (Software Development) and Electronics Communication focusing on mobile communication and computing. It covered subjects in computer science, communication networks, cloud computing and big data analytics. The program also included the latest tools and technologies with certification for real life application development.

9+ Schools across India

Bane and Boon

- My father is in the Army and so we have moved a lot in the past years as result of which I have schooled in most of North India.
- Growing up I met and interacted with people from different backgrounds which I believe(and all brats do) added to my personality.
